PUBLIC LEDGER
MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Coroner George W. Orr is able to be out after a very sick spell.

The concrete work along the line of the track in Third street has been advanced sufficiently as to permit the streetcars to make through trips some time during the day.

A phone message from Cincinnati was received here yesterday for Elijah Queen, colored, of the county. His brother is dead and the authorities want to know what disposition shall be made of the body.

Rev. John Barbour goes this afternoon to Falmouth, by appointment of Presbytery, to assist in the installation of a Pastor over the Churches of Falmouth and New Concord. There will be no preaching at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

With every dollar's worth of goods bought at P. J. Murphy's, you get a ticket on the elegant "Diamond Ring." Now is your opportunity to buy goods at a low price and get a ticket, which costs you nothing.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Police Court.

The following cases were tried in the Police Court yesterday, Judge John L. Whitaker presiding—

Fred Payne, alias Bear, and Pete Whaley, petit larceny, were held to the Circuit Court in the sum of $100 each, and in default were committed to Jail.

George Tudor, John Paul and J. F. Riley, plain drunks, were fined and costed $8.50 each.

Mary Varnell, loitering and disorderly conduct, $15.50.

TO WED SHORTLY

Mr. Joseph Wood Evans to Marry Miss Scott of Texas

Friends in this city have received invitations to the marriage of Miss Emily Moorhead Scott of Houston, Texas, to Mr. Joseph Wood Evans of Maysville.

The wedding will take place Wednesday, October 31st, at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride-elect, 1917 San Jacinto street, Houston.

Mr. Evans is the son of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Evans of Limestone street, but has for a number of years been located in Texas.

At home after November 15th at No. 808 Jefferson avenue, Houston.

WHAT HE DID THERE

Telephonic Exploits of W. O. Banks at Huntington, W. Va.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort received a letter yesterday from John J. Dawson, Chief of Police of Huntington, W. Va., in which he details several of W. O. Banks's actions in the Virginia town.

The telephone seems to have been his favorite aid in defrauding people out of their money.

At the Foster-Mead Hardware Store of Huntington he asked to be shown some revolvers, and after looking at them for a time concluded not to purchase, and turned away as if to leave the store, at the same time the salesman going to another part of the house.

Instead of passing on out he stepped to a telephone nearby, and calling up Miss Medford, Bookkeeper for the Huntington Land Company, and imitating the voice of the gentleman as nearly as he could, said—"This is Mr. Foster. Will you please hand $50 to our porter when he comes up stairs. I wish the money at once."

The gentleman being a large stockholder in the concern the Bookkeeper thought nothing wrong of the request, and when the Negro came up stairs hatless she gave him the money.

Something in the fellow's manner aroused her suspicions, and on going down stairs she was informed by Mr. Foster that he had made no such request; in the meantime the thief had disappeared.

He tried the telephone racket the same day on several others, but the scheme failed to work.

The town becoming too hot for him he made his escape in a john boat.

Officers followed in a launch, but he eluded his pursuers by deserting his craft and cutting out across the country.

Chief Ort sent Banks's picture to the Huntington Officer and it was identified as the same man.

In case he is not indicted by the Mason Circuit Court Grand Jury, he will be detained on a warrant charging him with being a fugitive from justice, and held for the Virginia Chief of Police.

Personal

Mrs. C. G. Cady is visiting her son, W. R. Cady, of Columbus.

Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Sharrard of Flemingsburg were in the city yesterday.

Dr. H. W. Ray was at Childers yesterday in the interest of the Redmen.

Mrs. Sallie Ricketts is visiting Mrs. H. P. Collins, at College Hill, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Amanda Glascock is visiting Mrs. Pearl Glascock of West Fourth street.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smoot of Richmond are visiting relatives in the county.

Mr. Abe Rees of Mayslick is visiting his sister, Mrs. I. F. Chaslor, at Millersburg.

Mrs. E. H. Kenner has been down from Flemingsburg this week on a visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Childs were the guests of Mrs. John Osborne of near Mayslick Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Leer and daughter of Millersburg are visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sue Hopper, at Mayslick.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Breck have returned to their home in Richmond, after a visit with relatives in the county.

Mr. T. W. McRoberts of Hillsboro has been spending the week here with his sister, Mrs. Wesley McGregory.

Mrs. Carroll P. Marshall of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting her father, Mr. James H. Hall of West Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Powell of West Third street have for their guests her mother and sister of Nicholasville.

Mr. T. H. Coulter of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Coulter, of the St. Charles Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. DeWitt of Charleston, W. Va., arrived yesterday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Thompson, of East Fifth street.

Mr. Hiram P. Chenoweth returned yesterday from Louisville, where he had been the past several days attending the Grand Lodge of Masons.

Miss Mary Louise Boulden of Millersburg was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Alex. Hunter, at Washington, and of her uncle, Mr. J. W. Boulden, in this city, from Wednesday until yesterday.

Miss Emma Richard of Clifton Heights, Cincinnati, returned home yesterday after a visit with Mrs. Fanny Campbell and Miss Fanny Case of East Second street. In ante-bellum days Miss Richard's father was associated in business with the late General Shafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Barker of Dayton, O., are rejoicing over the arrival of a son October 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wood returned last night from Cincinnati, where Mrs. Wood had been a patient in the German Deaconess Hospital. She is not yet able to walk.

INVESTMENTS FOR WOMEN.

No form of investment will yield you a better per cent. than well selected real estate. If you have a few hundred dollars that is lying idle in your dresser drawer, or in bank, invest it in some Maysville property which will bring you from 6 to 10 per cent. and be likely to increase in value. Nothing better. See John Duley.

Of the pleasant entertainments honoring Miss Lida Rogers one of the most delightful was the tea given by Miss Mary Noyes yesterday afternoon. The beautiful home of Miss Noyes was made unusually attractive within and without by the gorgeous autumn foliage plants. The color scheme, red and green, was carried out in wedding bells and hearts, suggestive of the approaching marriage of the guest of honor. Congratulations and good wishes were accompanied by sweet strains of music. Miss Noyes was assisted in receiving her guest by Misses Florence Rogers, Hattie Dobyns, Grace Anderson; Mesdames John Mullins Hunt, Charles C. Hopper, W. W. Akers and James E. Threlkeld. Misses Mary Wood and Phoebe Waller presided in the dining-room, and Misses Nettie Cook Dobyns and Lucy Baldwin served at the punch bowl. Misses Florence Darnell, Lily May Wardle, Hilda Threlkeld and Allene Glascock assisted in greeting the guests.

See Gerbrich about piano today.

New line of the nobbiest styles of black hats just received. Miss EMMA B. LUMAN.

Intense grief over the death of a child three years ago caused Mrs. George H. Sickles to suicide by shooting yesterday at her home in Cincinnati.

William Dutton, an old-time circus rider and at present employed by the Robinson Circus as Ringmaster, was assaulted by two young robbers at Ninth and Sycamore streets, Cincinnati, and his skull fractured. He was robbed of a gold watch and about $5.

NOTICE TO SHOE WEARERS.

Mr. Edw. Franken, representing the Potter Shoe Co., will be at the Central Hotel on Monday and Tuesday, October 22d and 23d, with a full line of samples of Men's, Women's and Children's high grade fall footwear. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Maysville and vicinity to call and inspect them during that time. POTTER SHOE CO., Cincinnati, O.

Creighbaum, tailor, over Smith's shoe store.

Mr. W. R. Cady of Columbus, Ohio, filled the pulpit of Rev. W. S. Priest, formerly Pastor of the Christian Church of this city, last Sunday.

Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Chloral and Liquor habits cured without pain or failure within five or ten days, with utmost secrecy. A perfect cure guaranteed and no pay exacted until cured and satisfied at the Stewart-Hord Sanitarium. J. B. Stewart, M. D., Medical Director, and L. J. Hord, Manager, Shelbyville, Ind.

The Portsmouth Times says: "Hon. John Duley, President of the Maysville (Ky.) Board of Trade, said he had fault to find with those advertising this Convention for not placing Maysville on the map, but he wanted it known Maysville was here to stay and grow. Maysville wanted to extend a hearty invitation for the Association to meet there next year."

Mr. Bruce Chenoweth of Chicago is in the city on business. His grandfather, who is now an octogenarian, and during the Civil War an officer in the Federal Army, is a brother of Major T. J. Chenoweth of this city, who was an officer in the Confederate Army. The young man has the appearance and bearing of being worthy of the honored name he bears.

In the Thomas Neal murder trial this week at the Greenup Circuit Court, two brothers were pitted against each other as opposing counsel. Hon. A. D. Cole of this city represented the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney W. T. Cole prosecuted, and succeeded in sending the man to the Penitentiary for life. According to the testimony he should have been hung.

A COMMON COMMENT MADE BY THE TRAVELING PEOPLE WHO VISIT MAYSVILLE: "We see more well dressed men here than in any town double its size in the country." This is made possible by having in this community one of the largest and most up-to-date Men's, Boys' and Children's Outfitting Establishments in the state. A bit of repartee heard any day on our streets: "Hello! That's a swell suit you have on. Where did you get it?" Down at Heck's place is invariably the reply. These few days of pleasant weather will soon pass and cold weather will set in. Why not come in while the lines are complete and make your selections, whether it be a Suit, Overcoat, Cravenette or whatever you need for winter wear that pertains to a gentleman's outfit. Shoes—We only carry three lines—Hanan, Douglas and Walkover, the name stamped on each particular make. You know what they are. We do. They are the best that can be procured or we would not have them.

CINCINNATI is infested with eighteen tons of soot daily, and yet she is not happy. But, fortunately, she doesn't want any more Dempseyism in hers.

CONGRESS, unfortunately, hasn't provided enough offices to go around. Fact is, there are so many worthy and competent Republicans, that Judge BENNETT hasn't been able to crown them all with an official title.

WONDER how much farther behind her sister states Kentucky will be allowed to trail before her people wake up to the importance of sending business men instead of politicians to the Legislature to make laws for them?

WHAT, pray tell, does a Wolfe county horse trader know about the local needs of a city like Maysville? Why, then, should the gentleman from Wolfe determine what sort of law the Legislature shall pass for the government of Maysville? Give the cities of Kentucky "Home Rule."

W. L. GLAZIER, the Contractor who built the icepiers in this city, has just been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury at Covington for permitting one of the men employed on the job to work more than eight hours. How I do wish somebody would frame a law making it a crime for a newspaperman to work more than sixteen hours a day in telling his readers what a great and good country this is, and what disinterested patriots the politicians are.

Mr. BRYAN will be so "blame" busy from now on that he cannot possibly find a spare day to put in for Mr. HEARST.

THE issue in the coming Congressional elections is very easily stated. It simply is whether Republican policies shall be continued or shall be repudiated. The natural inquiry arises—What are Republican policies? Well, they can be stated simply and concisely. They represent what the Republican party has been working for in legislation and National administration since 1895. They are—

First—The maintenance of the American dollar on a basis which makes it worth 100 cents of the best money the world over.

Second—The continuance of the general principle of Protection to American Industries, which gives so many American workmen the preference to earn that dollar as against the cheap labor of Europe.

Third—The economic system, based on Protection, which affords to the American farmer the best market for his products to be found in the world.

Fourth—The practical execution of the Anti-Trust Laws, made by a Republican Congress, ignored by a Democratic Administration, and now enforced by a Republican Administration, producing actual results in the disbandment of hurtful combinations and the punishment of officials of those combines who have violated the law. Ambitious leaders having personal ends to serve may promise great works in opposing the Trusts, but the Republican Administration can show results in punishing combinations hurtful to the general welfare.

Fifth—Progressive legislation in behalf of the people.

Again, the Republican party delivers the goods, as shown by the passage of the free alcohol bill, the extension of the rural free delivery service, appropriations for the irrigation of arid lands, the opening of new reservations to homestead settlement, pushing the work on the Panama Canal, the construction of public buildings, additional appropriations for river and harbor work and the like.

As against these live issues the Democratic party presents only one proposition, namely—Let's have a change! The Democracy does not have at this day any vital proposition to offer to the voters. It advocates only unrest and instability. The Republican party has done its whole duty and the voters know it, and they also know as in the past the party will do its whole duty in the future.

Your Chance!

If you desire to buy a home do not overlook the fact that on November 5th, at 10 o'clock, at the Courthouse, my Combination Sale will begin. There will be a number of surprises in this sale. Among the pieces of property which will be offered are the following:

FARMS

The Tollgate House and about 24 acres of land adjoining, located about 1 1/2 miles from the city on the Germantown pike. This is a splendid location for poultry raising.

123 acre tract on the Germantown pike at the Western edge of Moransburg and about 3 1/2 miles from Maysville. Four tenant houses, two good barns and blacksmith shop; an orchard of about 1,000 trees of all kinds of fruit. Both these tracts of land belong to the Vicroy estate.

HOUSES

A splendid two-story brick dwelling, located at 221 West Second street, owned by Mrs. Thomas A. Davis; 7 rooms, bathroom, laundry and splendid cellar. In fine repair.

Prof. E. Swift's house, located in East Second street; 7 rooms and bathroom; good cellar; lot 40 feet front and extending back to the Ohio river. This property is almost new and in fine state of repair.

George R. Miller's two-story brick metal roof house of 6 rooms, located No. 414 Second street, Fifth Ward. House has been newly painted and is in fair repair.

Mrs. Alice Lane's house of 5 rooms, located No. 20 East Fifth street. House in splendid condition.

LOTS

Lot belonging to William R. Davis, fronting 145 feet on East Second street and about 270 feet on the C. and O. Railroad. The improvements consist of a good, substantial two-story brick office, which has only been built a few years and is in good condition.

Lot fronting 50 feet on East Second street and lying between the residence of Major Thomas J. Chenoweth and the lot recently bought by Judge Thomas R. Plister. This is one of the most desirable lots in the city of Maysville.

Four lots located in East Second street, being lots Nos. 8, 9, 10 and 11 in the Maysville Real Estate Company's Sub-Division of Maysville. Lots Nos. 8, 9 and 10 front 36 feet and extend back 120 feet to a 16-foot alley; lot No. 11, 38 feet front on Second street and extends back to Meadow alley, a depth of 120 feet. Lot No. 11 is on the corner of Second and Main streets and is just across the street from the home recently purchased by Rudolph K. Hoefflich. These are among the most desirable lots in the city.

Quite a number of other pieces of property will be offered, and if you wish to list anything for this sale do so as early as possible.

The Augusta Band will furnish music, and transportation will be given those who wish to attend.

All the splendor which the most ardent admirer of athletic sports could desire will be produced by Mr. Howe at the Washington Theater on Monday night. The spectator's interest is absorbed at once by the vastness and impressiveness of the Stadium. The seats rising on each side with thousands of gaily dressed spectators might be compared with the scene at a Yale-Harvard baseball game multiplied tenfold. Seats are now on sale at Ray's.

THE WIDOWS KNOW

Chicago Expert Says Only Married Men Know How to Kiss

Mrs. Katherine Doelle of Chicago, young and a widow, is suing Frank E. Dooling, a Springfield politician, for $800, which she claims she lent him, and kisses which she confesses blushing she gave him outright.

"Few single men know how to kiss," declared the pretty widow. "I should have known Mr. Dooling was married by the way he kissed me. Married men know how to kiss better than single men. Their kisses are longer and more heartfelt.

"After he got my money he did not seem so fond, and then I discovered that Dooling had been married all the time. So now I want the money back and I wish I hadn't let him have the kisses."

Miss Grace Collins has gone to Cincinnati to accept a position as stenographer.

WILL BE INTERESTING.

The semi-annual appearance of Lyman H. Howe's moving picture exhibition is announced to take place at the Washington Theater on Monday, October 22d. Mr. Howe never fails to please at any time, and on this occasion, as in the past, the program will be entirely new, and of sufficient variety to interest everyone. Seats on sale Saturday.

Dr. J. W. Hill has dismissed his last case of diphtheria.

Mr. W. F. Vosmer and bride of Cincinnati are visiting friends here.

W. H. Hitt was in Covington this week a witness in the Federal Court.

Mr. McCord of Fleming county was here recently in quest of a farm to buy.

Less work has been done on our pike this year than in any previous year. Who can tell what is to become of Lewis county pikes and what becomes of the road money?

Some drunken rowdies returning from Vanceburg late Monday night threw volleys of stones into the residence of Mrs. Belle Burns, breaking down the door and smashing the windows.
Mrs. Burns is a peaceable, well respected colored lady, and the miscreants, who are known, should be severely punished.

Mr. George Hitt, aged 27, son of Mr. W. H.
Hitt, and Miss Rena Belle Norman, daughter of Mr. R. E. Norman, both of this place, were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride, Rev. Lock officiating. They talk of stay-

FORT McHENRY NO MORE!

Orders to Abandon the Venerable
and Honorable Structure

Commercial Tribune.

Fort McHenry is to be abandoned. There is no longer room for it in the economy of the military service, notwithstanding the magnificent part it played in the history of the United States—not the least of which was giving the National anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner," to the country. Orders have been issued from the War Department directing the Twenty-sixth Artillery, now manning the post, to vacate on or before March 1st, 1907, and Fort McHenry will no longer be a military post.

Established in 1794 it has had more than a century of honorable service. It cannot be placed on the pension roll, notwithstanding the battering it took from the British on September 12th, 1814, and notwithstanding the greater and the more effective battering it gave in return. Some patriotic society ought to take the matter up on behalf of the gallant old fort.

When Secretary Bonaparte sought to dismantle and to destroy the frigate Constitution he heard from the patriotic women of the land and held hands off. It might be done for Fort McHenry, as it was done for the old frigate.

The War Department insists that Fort Mc-Henry has outlived its usefulness. Possibly!
But it has not outlived its gallant history, and never will, and if stronger defenses are needed —build them. But hold on to Fort McHenry, which inspired "The Star Spangled Banner" while the British shells were bursting over it and where the British, after burning Washington, met defeat from its men and its guns and its walls.

A delegation of five, headed by Chief Quanaah Parker, representing the Apache tribe of Indians, visited Washington recently to make a last plea before the President and War Department for liberty, a definite location and allotments of land.

Three expert accountants from the Department at Washington, working under a Deputy United States Treasurer, counting more than $20,000,000 in the Subtreasury vaults in St.
Louis, are said to have discovered a shortage of $61,000.

A soldier of the St. Petersburg garrison who killed Mlle. Semeova, a young medical student, because she showed herself at a window of her cell overlooking the courtyard, has been given a reward of $5 for the brutal killing, and held up as an example to his comrades.

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that the relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cahill's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years, I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore."
